CLASS MOTTO

The future belongs to him who knows how to wait.

CLASS FLOWER

Red Rose

CLASS COLORS

Red and Gold

ALMA MATER

*We rise to cheer Redbank High,
Where our hearts are found.*

Loving ties will always be for Friendships here are bound.

*Alma Mater, Alma Mater, Faith
Is here with you.*

*We will ever sing thy praise,
To thee we'll 'ere be true.*

DEDICATION

We, the class of 1970, wish to dedicate our yearbook to Mr. Benjamin Kundick. His ambition in life was to become a professional baseball player, but Mr. Kundick gave up this honorable occupation to become a math teacher at Redbank. As football and wrestling coach, he has gained the respect of the student body. With his many witty ideas, dull math classes have become a thing of the past. As students, we have only known him a short time, but in his high school yearbook, his friends described him as:

Bashful Benny! The nimble-fingered end

Oh my! The girls he can send.

On November 15, 1969, the Senior Class presented "Meet Me in St. Louis." The setting of the play is St. Louis in the spring of 1904 where the World's Fair is just about to open. The plot concerns the Smith family who find themselves in New York before the Fair opens. Conflict arises when the Smith daughters decide they do not want to go to New York. At the expense of Mr. Smith's job, Rose, Esther, Agnes and Footie finally succeed in keeping their family in St. Louis. The play was highlighted by brilliant performances and was a record breaking success, earning the class of '70 over $700.

IN MEMORY OF

James Hale

*Jim walked the halls of Redbank
With a cheery smile and a hi!
His grin was broad, he was lots of fun,
It's hard now to say good-bye*

*We wonder just why death came
To one so young and spry,
Who had so much before him,
It's hard now to say good-bye*

*Many words have been written
Of people who live and die,
But Jim Hale was one of us,
And it's hard now to say good-bye*

Evelyn Caldwell

SOMEWHERE MY LOVE

The Senior High Prom of 1969 began at 8 P.M. on the cold, snowy evening of December 23. The theme, "Somewhere My Love," was decorated in a holiday atmosphere of Christmas trees, reindeer, bells, and mistletoe.

At 9.30, Diane Barn placed a crown of tinsel in the hands of Mike Minich, and he crowned his queen, Vickie Myers. Barbara Mogle gave the prince's crown to Dave Colwell, who accepted it for Al Bright. Dave crowned his princess, Penny Cypher. Everyone danced to the music of the Worthy Generation until 11.30 then the prom was over for another year.

FAREWELL

Twelve years have passed and now we, the Class of '70, must say good-bye to a part of our life which has been filled with both joyful and sorrowful moments. We remember the day we received our class rings, our Washington trip, our prom, our banquet, and finally our graduation. The time passes quickly and we are left with a dreary feeling, but then we are reminded of the endless stretch of time ahead—our future.

IN MEMORY

Mrs. Eileen Wetzel

TO ONE GONE ON

*'Too oft' as we pilgrim together
Too oft' as we act in life's play.
We take our blessings for granted
Until they are taken away.
And now, as we pause in grave silence,
We are stunned by this terrible blow
We realize more than ever
How quickly our loved ones can go.*

*We're sent to this earth with a mission,
On the stage of life we must play.
When to enter was not our planning.
When to go is not ours to say.
As we work and play together
The bonds of our friendship grow tight
And they are not easily severed
When a loved one slips out of sight.*

*Our time, our color, our station
Are all planned for us in advance
And, when our testing is over,
We're permitted no backward glance
We lay down with our earthly body
The ills to which all flesh is heir,
We're freed from all burdens and heartache—
Freed from our every care*

*She leaves such a sweet remembrance—
One we shall never forget.
It seems we can't do without her
At Redbank High, and yet
Let's not grieve too much for this dear one
As we bow to His will and His way.
Let's smile through our tears, Eileen's happy—
This is her graduation day.*

Iola Doverspike
